WE HAVE A BISHOP !!!!!

Last Tuesday, February 23rd, the Holy See announced that Pope Benedict XVI has appointed Reverend Terry R. LaValley, currently Diocesan Administrator of the Diocese of Ogdensburg, as the 14th Bishop of the Diocese of Ogdensburg to succeed the Most Reverend Robert J. Cunningham, Bishop of Syracuse

Bishop-elect LaValley, the second of six children of Ronald (deceased) and Doris LaValley, is a native of Mooers Forks, NY and was raised in Saint Ann's Parish. He was born on March 26, 1956 and completed his primary and secondary education at Mooers Central School in Mooers, NY and Northeastern Clinton Central School in Champlain, NY. He received a B.A. from the University of the State of New York at Plattsburgh and a Certificate of Studies in Philosophy from Wadhams Hall Seminary-College in Ogdensburg. Prior to his entrance into Wadhams Hall in January 1983, Bishop-elect LaValley served a six-year tour of duty with the United States Navy. He completed the Pre-Theology Program at Wadhams Hall in May 1984 and received his Master of Divinity degree from Christ the King Seminary in East Aurora, NY in May 1988. The bishop-elect was ordained to the Diaconate on February 27, 1988 and to the Priesthood on September 24, 1988 by Bishop Stanislaus J. Brzana, the 10th Bishop of Ogdensburg. Upon ordination, he served as parochial vicar at the Church of the Sacred Heart in Massena, NY. During this time, he was named as the Associate Secretary of the Marriage Tribunal and was elected to serve on the Council of Priests. In 1992, the bishop-elect began studies in Canon Law at Saint Paul's University in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada where he was awarded his M.C.L. and J.C.L. in May 1994.

Upon the completion of his graduate studies, Bishop-elect LaValley was named as Administrator of Saint Peter's Church in Hammond and Saint Patrick's Church in Rossie, NY and was appointed Adjutant Judicial Vicar. In 1996, Bishop Paul S. Loverde named him Episcopal Vicar for Diocesan Services and Chancellor of the Diocese of Ogdensburg with residence at Wadhams Hall Seminary-College.

In January 1998, in addition to his diocesan responsibilities, the bishop-elect was named Pastor of Saint Raphael's Church in Heuvelton, NY. In June 1999, he became the Administrator of Saint

James Church in Gouverneur, NY while continuing to serve in his diocesan positions. In June 2000, he returned to Saint Raphael's Church in Heuvelton as Pastor and continued to serve as Episcopal Vicar and Chancellor for Bishop Gerald M. Barbarito. In July 2003, the Bishop-elect became Rector of Saint Mary's Cathedral in Ogdensburg while retaining his diocesan offices.

In August 2004, Bishop-elect LaValley was relieved of his duties as Episcopal Vicar and Chancellor by Bishop Robert Cunningham, and appointed the Bishop's delegate to implement and oversee compliance with the Charter for the Protection Children and Young People. In this capacity, he continued to serve as Chairperson of the Diocesan Review Board. On May 28, 2009, the College Consultors elected Bishop-elect LaValley as Diocesan Administrator, upon the installation of the Most Reverend Robert J. Cunningham as Bishop of Syracuse. The bishop-elect will continue as the Diocesan Administrator until his Ordination and Installation as the 14th Bishop of Ogdensburg on Friday, April 30, 2010.
